

Although I am against it in principle as the moment in the air is the last peaceful time we have left in a public area, if the need rises, then we should inforce Cellular Phone section in the aircraft similar to the former smoking area.